

Name: _____

Date: _____

Directions: Separate into groups of 5, each person read the blog posts under one tag (globalization, maps, global capitalism, externalized costs, or environmental impact) and read the post associated with each tag. After reading the blog posts work as a group to answer the following questions.

- 1) Maps can be very effective, but different _____ can affect the viewers' understanding of the map.
- 2) Some externalized costs of capitalism that affect the environment include _____ and _____.
- 3) Two ways someone can reduce waste during their day include _____ and _____.
- 4) _____ are a great way to show relative location, while _____ are a great way to show relative distance.
- 5) _____ is the spread of businesses on a international scale. It is seen as a "double-edged sword" because based on your _____ it can be viewed as either a negative or a positive.
- 6) _____ refers to the rise in average surface temperature. The _____ is an agreement adapted by the United Nations to try and control rising global surface temperatures.
- 7) Pros to shopping at your local farmers market include: _____, _____, and _____.
- 8) Capitalists _____ costs in order to save money any chance they get.
- 9) Capitalism has a negative impact on two very important aspects of our lives, _____ and _____.
- 10) In 2010, _____ blamed an accidental invasion of _____ on Google Maps.
- 11) On average globalization _____ prices and makes some goods _____ attainable.
- 12) The world temperature is rising _____ more than it can in order to sustain the planet.
- 13) Two steps to move towards a zero waste lifestyle are not buying _____ and also _____.
- 14) Those who are the cause of most of the environmental issues are _____ while those who are dealing with the negative impacts are _____.
- 15) What is the definition of globalization?

